FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Michael Grigalonis Named President of Pennsylvania Economic Development Association Board of Directors

Harrisburg, PA, December 9, 2019 — The Pennsylvania Economic Development Association (PEDA) is pleased to announce that Michael Grigalonis, Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President of Chester County Economic Development Council (CCEDC), has been elected to serve as President of its Board of Directors, with his two year term beginning on January 1, 2020.

Grigalonis is currently responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of CCEDC's $3 million operating budget and 35 staff members. He serves as the organization's primary liaison with the Executive Committee and Board of Directors, comprised of the top business leaders in Chester County. Immediately prior to accepting his current role, Grigalonis spent seven years as CCEDC's Program Manager, creating, implementing, and managing economic and business development projects benefitting Chester County and the Greater Philadelphia region.
